Name: _____ Date: _____

-ed and -ing adjectives

Remember
-ed = how a person feels: I'm bored. She's tired.
-ing = what makes us feel it: The film is boring. The walk was tiring.
Common pairs: bored/boring, interested/interesting, tired/tiring, excited/exciting, surprised/surprising, frightened/frightening

PART A

Complete the sentences.

1. The museum was really _____ (interested / interesting).
2. Rafael is _____ (bored / boring) because it's raining.
3. We were _____ (surprised / surprising) to see snow in April.
4. Cleaning the house is _____ (tired / tiring).
5. Are you _____ (excited / exciting) about your birthday?
6. The storm was _____ (frightened / frightening), so the children stayed inside.

PART B

Find the mistake and write the correct sentence.

1. I'm boring in this lesson.

2. The film was very interested.

3. I'm very exciting about the trip.

4. The long journey was tired.

PART C · YOUR TURN

Write three true sentences about you using this grammar.